DETAILED ACTION

This action is in response to the applicant's amendment received on 13 February 2007. The examiner acknowledges the amendments made to the claims and the specification.

Information Disclosure Statement

1. The information disclosure statement (IDS) submitted on 13 February 2007 is acknowledged. The submission is in compliance with the provisions of 37 CFR 1.97. Accordingly, the information disclosure statement is being considered by the examiner.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 1-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Huxel (U.S. Patent No. 6,503,259) in view of Hardy (U.S. Patent No. 4,467,804).

Claims 1-20: Huxel discloses in Figure 1 a paired anastomosis device having a first ring with a plurality of holding surfaces, a second ring having a plurality of holding surfaces, wherein each ring has a plurality of flexible segments from which the respective holding surfaces extend, guides that provide coaxial movement, wherein the flexible segments are adapted to engage each ring to change in diameter (see Figure 1 and Abstract).

Art Unit: 3734

Huxel discloses the claimed device except for the first ring means and the second ring means are configured to hold the first vessel and second vessel together without requiring penetration of at least one of the vessels.

Hardy teaches first ring means and the second ring means 32 are configured to hold the first vessel and second vessel together without requiring penetration of at least one of the vessels (Figures 2-9). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of invention to provide first and second ring means that do not penetration the vessels, as taught by Hardy, since it was known in the art that avoiding tissue penetration is ideal in order to avoid tissue injury or tearing.

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-20 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

4. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
